

Fishbone Knives is not responsible for any mistakes or misspellings made by customers.

Personalized laser engraved items are not accepted for return for any reason.

While we accept most engraving requests, we cannot honor all. Some may contain trademarks or other terms that we do not have the right to use.

Engraving requests may contain material that Fishbone Knives considers inappropriate or simply do not want to place on products. At times this obliges us to decline engraving requests that may otherwise seem unobjectionable. If your engraving request is deemed unacceptable, your order will be canceled and you will be notified via email.

Fishbone Knives reserves the right to cancel any engraving requests after they have been submitted.

Prices are subject to change without notice

Cancellations are not possible once the engraving process has begun.

Please note, engraving may delay processing time beyond two business days.

By placing your order, you agree to the disclaimer and accept any and all liabilities associated with the engraving process.
